

Bands of heavy rain will continue to feed across South West England today. Dorset and Wiltshire will probably see the heavier rain this afternoon, though the focus shifts back west towards Devon and Cornwall this evening. There is a risk of minor surface water flooding, with some river flooding also possible across Devon and Cornwall. Heavy rain continues into tomorrow across much of the region, and a separate rainfall warning has been issued for Tuesday.

Valid from 14:00 on Mon, 21st Oct 2013 until 23:59 on Mon, 21st Oct 2013

The public should be aware of the potential for disruption due to localised flooding.
